Himself about its

Circulation-

LAST MONTH

Open to All.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1888.

WITHOUT A FLINCH.

Young Nowlin Hanged at East Cambridge, Mass.

Remarkable Nerve of the Boy Who Killed His Employer.

He Murdered George E. Codman, His Emmarkable for its Brutality, and Robberr was the Object-The Drop Fell at 9.23 and Death was Instantaneous-His Last Message was One of Love to Ilis Mother.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. I Boston, Jan. 20 .- At exactly 9.23 this morning, in the Middlesex Jail at East Cambridge, James Edward Nowlin, for the murder of George E. Codman, paid the death penalty.

James Edward Nowlin, the youngest mur-derer ever hanged in Massachusetts, was employed for two years by George E. Codman, a Somerville milkman. Jan. 4 of last year George Codman's remains were found strewn along a lonely road in the town of Lexington. Mass. The arms, legs and head had been chopped from the body and hid in different places along the road. Nowlin was immediately suspected and arrested. He confessed the crime, telling how he killed his employer by a blow of an axe and then carried the dismembered parts in a sleigh to Lexington. He was but seventeen years of age when he committed the crime.

Codman had about $600 on his person a the time of the tragedy, and the money was what Nowlin wanted.

Early this morning a crowd assembled about the jail, but only a chosen few were admitted to the scene of the hanging.

Sheriff Cushing, with three deputies, had charge of the execution, and in many respects it was well-carried out. The trap was sprung at 9.23, and after a very short struggle the body hanged motionless for twenty-five minutes, when it was cut down, delivered to Undertaker Runy, driven to Somerville and taken in charge by relatives.

Nowlin's parting with his mother last evening was affecting, but not so painful as would naturally be supposed. They gave evidence of firm nerves.

naturally be supposed. They gave evidence of firm nerves.

They prayed together for an hour, and when the sorrow-stricken mother left the jail about 9 o'clock last evening the last words of her son exhorted her to bear up and be reconciled to the sentence which fate had decreed.

Nowlin talked freely with his keepers, Messrs Gilman and Cutting, during the rest of the night. He spoke fervently of his mother and asked many questions about the execution. He went to bed about midnight and slept soundly until 5 o'clock.

Shortly before 6 he arose, dressed himself carefully in clean clothes, and at 7 a breakfast, consisting of beefsteak, potatoes, rolls and coffee, was served to him, which he ate with a hearty relish.

After the meal he sat down and was engaged in reading his Bibbe when Rev. A. M. Osgood, of Sommerville, was admitted to the cell. The minister prayed with the young man, who expressed penitence and sorrow for his crime.

nis crime.
Nowlin's eldest brother had a short meet-Nowlin's eldest brother had a short meeting, at which both were deeply moved.

About 9 o'clock the condemned man was taken from his cell to one in another part of the jail. In making the change he was obliged to pass the gallows, which he eyed critically but without a tremor.

Rev. J. F. Bartlett, of the Winter Hill Bantist Church, then came in and proved Baptist Church, then came in and prayed with Nowlin.

A few minutes later the procession was formed and the march to the gallows taken

Nowlin walked with a firm step to his position on the centre of the drop, looking to see where he was going, and then turning his face towards the sheriffs and then to those face towards the sheriffs and then to those waiting to witness below.

He was not pale or nervous, in fact there was a flush of color in his cheeks, and with smoothly combed hair, clear eyes and neatly dressed form the boy probably never looked better in his life than at this last moment.

A little delay occurred as Sheriff Fiske adjusted the straps around Nowlin's legs and arms, but the prisoner did not tremble, but stood as firmly as his pinioned limbs would permit. He even watched the operation of buckling a particularly obnexious strap, and when he was finally secured looked to the chaplain as he stepped towards the front of the platform.

chapiain as no scepped the platform.

Not a word had been spoken aloud up to this time. As Mr. Bartlett's tones broke the stillness of the corridors, heads were uncovered and bowed in response to the solemnity the occasion.

As Mr. Bartlett finished, Sheriff Cushing stepped forward and said: James E. Nowlin, in accordance with the stepped forward and said:

"James E. Nowlin, in accordance with the sentence passed upon you by the Court, it becomes my duty to execute that decree. Have you anything to say before you die?"

Looking the Sheriff full in the face, Nowlin, in a clear though low tone, said: "Nothing, only that I am about square and ready to die. I feel that God has forgiven me and I feel thankful to you for what you have done," and his voice broke slightly at the finish and he bowed his head.

Sheriff Fiske now stepped forward to the prisoner's side, and slipping the noose over his head, adjusted it carefully under the chin and tightened it around the neck.

He then placed the black cap on Nowlin's head, and, pulling it well down over the face, shut out forever the light of day.

Not a tremor of Nowlin's frame betokened that his spirit was broken, and he met the death that followed almost immediately with the same firmness that had upheld him through the trying ceremony.

Sheriff Fiske then stepped back, and Sheriff Cushing then pressed the spring of the trap, and at just 9.23 o'clock the body of Nowlin shot rapidly downward and brought up with a jerk at the end of the rope, that nad proved equal to the task laid upon it. The body hung almost motionless for a moment, and then swung slowly around as the rope yielded slightly under its weight.

There were a few movements of the limbs and an effort to, raise the feet, and all was There were a few movements of the limbs and an effort to, raise the feet, and all was

They Drew Blanks.

The Tammany Hall Aldermen have had their lotlery for their share of the patronage of the Board. The County Democracy Aldermen drew for prize a few days ago. The Tammany Aldermen who got blanks out of a hat were: McCarthy, of the First District; Holland, of the Fifth District; Walker, of the Ninth District, and Guntier, of the Tweatieth District. These fouruninusly Aldermed are very unhappy to-day. They will have to wear out a good deal of shoe leather in alirmshims around the departments for jobs promised constituents at the City Hail. DRISCOLL MORE CHEERFUL.

He is Busy Writing His Last Statement for

Dan Driscoll's face relaxed into a smile as he read the account of his physical condition in one of the papers this morning. He held himself erect and, walking over to Deputy Sheriff Burnes said, with a laugh: "I don't look much like a wreck, do I?"

"Indeed you don't, Dan," was the reassur-ing reply. "You have kept up wonderfully Driscoll mentioned broiled ham in his order for breakfast, but suddenly recollecting himself, he said: "Let's see; this is ployer, Jan. 4, 1887—The Deed was Re- Friday, isn't it? Well then, I guess I wont have any meat. Let it be soft-boiled eggs, toust and coffee.

toast and coffee.

And it was so, and when the tray was borne back to the kitchen, lo! it was empty.

Driscoll is somewhat hurt at the hint thrown out in certain quarters that his letter to his wife, published yesterday, was altered and improved before being read to the reporters.

He wants it to be distinctly understood that this was not so, but that he wrote it himself exactly as it appeared in the papers. Deputy Sheriffs Carroll, Young and Fitzgerald, who were on duty in the condemned cell yester-day, say that Driscoll tells the truth and is entitled to all the credit which his literary entitled to all the credit which his literary effort may bring.

The Whyo chief is a great smoker. He consumed thirteen cigars yesterday, and he has been known to do better than that.

The cigars are turnished by the Deputy Sheriffs at their own personal expense, and strange to say they don't grumble a bit.

They won't allow Driscoll's friends or relatives to send or give him cigars for fear that they may contain some aid to suicide in the shape of poison or some sharp steel instrument.

As an additional precaution the meat sup-ment.

As an additional precaution the meat supplied to Driscoll is cut up by Mrs. Walsh before it is sent to the condemned cell, and the only table implement which Driscoll is allowed to have is a soft leaden spoon.

When Father Gilenus called this morning Driscoll shook him cordially by the hand and sat down by his side with a better grace than he has hitherto displayed.

He said that he had been thinking over his sast life and found that he had done injury to

He said that he had been thinking over his past life and found that he had done injury to a good many people. He gave the good priest verbal messages to several of his old pals, especially to his enemy McCarthy, who is now in Sing Sing doing a four-years' sentence for counterfeiting.

He does not, however, in any way take back his story that McCarthy was the one who shot Beeria Garrity who shot Beez's Garrity.

At noon Driscoll asked Deputy Sheriff Walsh for pen, ink and paper and said that he would have his last statement to the public ready in a few hours.

THE DAY IN WALL STREET.

Benra Renew Their Attack on the Stock Market.

The bears renewed their attack upon the stock market this morning, and by persistent hammering succeeded in bringing about a general decline. dissouri Pacific was again the objective point, and Missouri Facine was again to be about price for a long time past.

There is a very nervous feeling in regard to this troperty, the heavy sales by Gould before his de-

There is a very nervous feeling in regard to this property, the heavy sales by Gould before his departure for Europe giving rise to fears that the road is not in the good shape indicated by official statements put out from time to time.

This feeling has taken such a hold upon investors that a number of them have unloaded.

As the day advanced the buils showed more backbone and raillied the whole list, using Oregan Navigation as the leader. Some of the shorts became alarmed and their purchases assisted the upward movement.

alarmed and their purchases assisted the upward movement.

Money easy at $\frac{1}{2}$ a 4 per cent. Foreign exchange is steady, with a fair demand.

Railroad bonds are firm and Governments unchanged at $195\tau 1825, to 148 and 105 a 109 for 4\frac{1}{2}\tau 1825.

American railway securities were weak and lower in London to-day. The decline ranged from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\

THE QUOTATIONS.

Ш	12000 75270002000	Open.	High.	Low.
9	Canada Southern		5834	5834
1	Central Pacific	311	31.7	31
1	Cleve., Col., Cin. & Ind	524	3214	520
1	Chicago & Northwest	108	108	107%
1	Chic., Mil. & St. Paul	100	7514	7434
	Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific	1123	11242	112%
Ą	Cin., Ind., St. L. & Chic.,	76%	.76%	7617
	Colorado Coal & Iron	3436	3436	3436
ı	Consolidated Gas	763	76%	761
4	Del., Lack, & Western	129	1291	129
ú	Delaware & Hudson	10636	10614	106%
ij	Denver & Rio Grande pfd	52	34	82
ı	E. Tenn., Va. & Georgia	10%	10%	10%
	Fort Worth & Denver City	40%	40	403
	Ilitnois Central	118	118	LIN
3	Il inois Central Louisville & Nashville	60%	6034	6.4
	Lake bhore	92%	9232	D.136
	Lake bhore.	44	44	44
	Manhattan consol	94	92	9 36
	Michigan Central	8236	8736	8234
	Minn & St. L. pfd	16	1.6	16
	Missouri Pacific	84%	84%	8236
ľ	Mobile & Ohio	12	12	12
	Mobile & Ohio. Missouri, Kansas & Texas	17	17	16%
H	New Jersey Central	77.56	7714	365
	N. Y. & New England		37	36%
j	N. Y., Lake Erie & Western		27%	273
	N. Y., Susq. & West	204	8%	834
	N. Y., Susq. & West. pfd	31%	31	311
Ż	Norfolk & Western pid	44	4414
4	Northern Pacific	22%	233	22
	Northern Pacine pid	1756	40 %	154
	Ontario & Western Oregon Hailway & Navigation	11.79	1736	1734
	Oregon Transcontinental	93	224	98
	Pacific Mail	36	360	2114
	Philadelphia & Reading	6 16	645	635
3	Peoria, Decatur & Evans		194	19
	Pullman Palace Car Co	140%	140%	140%
	Quicksilver		10	10
	Rich. & West Point Ter.	2236	22%	22
	St. Paul & Omaha	894	39 14	3812
1	St. Paul & Omaha pref	10714	1073	1075
J	Texas Pacific.	2442	24.0	2436
H	Tenn. Coal & Iron.	2917	2917	29.4
	Union Pacific	563.	1000	56
	Union Pacific. Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific pfd	- 565	500 S	2714
	Western Union Telegraph	7736	7736	7712
	Wheeling & Lake Hrie	. 51	61	60)
4		10.555	2.77%

New York Markets.

WHEAT. -The market opened at last night's closing prices, May contracts being quoted at 83%. Cables were heavy and during the morning there was a decline of Mc. in quotations on a quil mar-was a decine of a control was a decine from last night's closing prices, good buying by prominent local operators advanced quotations 3 to 4 points during the forenoon. Prices at noon were: Jan., 10.36; Feb., 10.61; March, 10.78; April, 10.79; May, 10.56; June, 10.98; July, 10.97; Aug., 11. ug., 11. COFFEE. -There was another 20-point drop in COPPER.—There was another 20-point drop in coffee futures to-day. Prices at the opening were: Jan., 14.50; Feb., 14.20; March, 18.30; April, 18.10; May, 18.56; June, 18.40; July, 12.90; Aug., 12.60. Cables were weak and lower.

PETROLEUM.—Oil was irregular again to-day, but there is a firmer tone underlying seculative transactions. The opening price was 90%, and this was followed by a decline to 89%. Fluctuations were confined between these limits until noon, when the market advanced to 30%, followed by a slight reaction.

LIVE STOCK. -Receipts of beeves, 1, 230 head-17 carloads for city slaughterers direct and 52 car-loads for the market. And 52 carloads of sale cattle loads for the market. And 32 carloads of sale cattle were in the selling pens that arrived Wednesday and yesterday. Good cattle were scarce and found buyers at fairly sustained prices, but inferior to medium were more than plenty and had a very slow sale at a reduction of 10 a 15 cents, per 100 lb., and at least 40 carloads were carried over. Common to strictly prime steers sold at 32, 90 a $3.80 per 100 lb.; 4 cardoads were carried over. Common to strictly prime steers sold at $2, 90 a $3.80 per 100 lb.; 4 cardoads at $6.18\%; bulls and dry cows at $2.80 a $5.80. Receipts of sheep and lambs, 4,160. Quiet but steady at $4 a $5.87\% per 100 lb. for sheep, and $5 a $7.12\% for lambs. Only 1,327 hogs arrived, all for slanguisters direct. No trading in live hogs. Nominally firmer at $5.50 a $5.80 per 100 lb.

The Acadia Safe in Port.

early to-day. She had no passengers on board and

CUPID'S HELPER IN COURT.

MRS. GUION'S SEARCH FOR A HUSBAND AT A MARRIAGE SHOP.

Suing to Recover the $55 Fees She Paid to Matrimonial Agent Wellman-She Walted a Year, Found No Affinity, and was Swindled Out of $1,000-Marriage Only Assisted, Not Guaranteed.

The suit of Mrs. Emily Guion to recover $55 paid to H. B. Wellman, the philanthropic deputy cupid who was to get her a husband for the money but didn't, came up before Judge Browne in Part III. of the City Court to-day.

Wellman is the same matrimonial agent who became famous through his transactions with a western man who signed himself "Gus Williams, Commedian." He is little, pale-faced and slim. It is stated in the complaint that Mrs. Guion met at his agency one Mr. Leroy, who proved a gay deceiver and disappeared after corrowing $1,000 to buy a span of horses.

She was to get her money back if not suited

She was to get her money back if not suited by Ang. 15 last, but if she got a husband she was to pav $50 more. She assigned her claim to A. K. Duval, who was the real plaintiff.

W. H. Mundy appeared as counsel for the disappointed little woman, and Lawyer Newhall backed Cupid's partner.

Judge Brown said, "Goahead," and Mrs. Guion began to testify. She is rather pretty and petite, of that age which is usually mentioned as "uncertain." She dresses well, a sealskin cloak being her most prominent garment, and has a wealth of nut-brown hair. She said Wellman had kept her photographs.

Q. How long had you been a pairou of the insti-Q. How long has you been a parron of the insti-tution? A. A year last August.
Q. Did you see any one in that time? A. Yes, twenty or more gentlemen.
Q. During all this time you did not succeed in fluding your affulty, so to speak? A. No sir (with some feeling).

This completed the case for the plaintiff and Mr. Newhall moved the dismissal of the

This completed the case for the plaintiff and Mr. Newhall moved the dismissal of the case. Denied.

Then Cupid, in a "hand-me-down" suit of black, a choker of the vintage of 1827 and a pair of very much stretched rubber-topped Congress gaiters of the Jackson Administration, took the stand.

He testified that he had introduced a Mr. Keating to Mrs. Guion. He continued:

When Mrs. Guion. He continued:

When Mrs. Guion demanded her money back I asked if she likes Keating. She replied she should continue her acquaints me with him, but not to marry him—because he hadn't enough money. I said tout we did not guarantee marriage.

I spent the money in advertising for her. Those advertisements brought 1, 200 or 1, 500 letters.

My clerk read them and selected those we thought might suit her and sent them to her. I cettimate that those letters cost us four cents apiece, and we had to send a circular to each of the writers. I never refused to return her phetographs, and here they are.

On cross-examination by Mr. Mundy, the

On cross-examination by Mr. Mundy, the following came out:

Q. Mr. Wellman, you were once a Methodist clergyman, weren't you? A. No, sir!
Q. Didn't you get expelled from the pulpit in the West? A. No, sir!

West? A. No, sir!

John Buckley, the next witness, had known Mrs. Guion and Mr. Keating, but was not permitted to tell what else he knew.

This completed the evidence, and the lawyeas were allowed five minutes each to address the twelve sterling burghers in the inv-box. Mr. Mundy said, with a flourish of his handkerchief, that Wellman was a viper, Judge Brown said "Go on," and Mr. Mundy remarked:

Mrs. Guion went to Wellman on the advice of one who wanted to get rid of paying her alimony. I say that any man who would advertise for hostands and wives, who would trife with the tenderest affections of the heart, would go on the witness-stand and he black is white. I hope you will stamp this place out by your verdict.

"Time's up!" declared the Court, and after a three-minutes charge the much-amused jury had the case.

HIS INNOCENT AIR OF NO AVAIL

A Colored Ticket-Chopper Held on a Charge of Assault.

Michael Hughes, a baker, of 412 West Twenty-fifth street, who was assaulted last night at the downtown station of the Ninth avenue elevated railroad, at Twenty-third street, appeared in the Jefferson Market Court this morning, with his nose badly out of shape and his eyes blackened. He charged Adolph Leanet, the colored ticket-chopper of Adolph Leanet, the colored ticket-chopper of the station, with the assault.

At about 9 o'clock, Mr. Hughes said, when he went to take the downtown train Leanet slammed the gate in front of him. Hughes said that he was in a hurry to get downtown on business. As he tried to get in the colored man pushed him.

"I want to catch that down train," shouted Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes.

"I'll give you a downtown train," said the ticket-chopper as he hauled off and struck Mr. Hughes a blow between the eyes with his fist which knocked him down

Mr. Hughes had Leanet arrested.

This morning the ticket-chopper appeared in Jefferson Market Court, the most innocent-looking of men. He denied ever seeing Mr.

looking of men. He denied ever seeing Mr. Hughes, He had had no trouble with any one, and Mr. Hughes must be mistaken.
Mr. Hughes said that he was perfectly sober and knew what he was saying.

Leanet was held in $300 bail to answer.

A Professional Bondsman's Bad Luck. Robert H. Waldron, a professional bondsman of 888 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street took $20 from Mrs. Mary Ann Lynch on Jan. 7 as took $50 from Mrs. Many Ann Lynch on Jan. 7 as a fee for getting William Stapleton released on bail from Blackwell's Island.

He did not get Stapleton released, and yesterday, when Mrs. Lynch demanded her money back, he offered to give the required bail in the Hariem court. The Justice would not take him, and Mrs. Lynch had him arrested. This morning he was held in $500 bail for examination on Tuesday.

Whom Did Michael Vauck Bribe? There is no doubt that Michael Yauck, who was arrested in Ohio for having $10,000 worth of smuggled watches in his possession, was a sterage pas-senger on the Rhein, which arrived here on Dec. 31. H. H. Whitfield, Whitiam Hunter and John Kain, who have been relieved from duty by Surveyor Beattle pending an investigation, were the cus-toms inspectors who examined the baggage of the steerage passengers, and if there was any bribery in the case, as is charged by Yanek, one of them must be the guilty person.

Collector Geritzen's Silk Hat. Collector Magone is somewhat puzzled as to how he shall set in regard to the case of Acting Deputy-Collector Augustus H. Geritzen, who accepted a slik hat from Broker C. A. Haynes.

The matter is a trivial one, but still Mr. Haynes broke the regulations, which forbid him or anybody interested it imports to make presents of any kind to certain, officials, under penalty of a $5,000 fine or two years in prison.

Sudden Death on an L Car-keeper for the firm of J. Macy & Sons, 189 and 191

HOPES OF THE GIRL STRIKERS. But Walmsley is Not Likely to be Driver from the Factory. The striking mill hands at the O. N. T. thread works in Kearny seem to have some ground now to hope for an early adustment of their difficulties, but what they lesire most—the removal of Supt. Walmsley the enemy of bangs, bustles, combs and neat dresses in the factory—is not likely to be accomplished.

Counseilor William J. Davis and Principal John Dwyer, of Harrison, who were selected by the strikers as arbitrators, waited upon Treasurer William Clark at his Newark office and presented to him the strikers' petition for a board of arbitration. The Treasurer said he would make a formal reply within a few days, but intimated that the company would not arbitrate because the strikers failed to comply with the rules and he would not entertain the proposition to discharge Walmsley.

Officers of the company say that just as soon as the repairs are made they will resume

Officers of the company say that just as soon as the repairs are made they will resume business. The spinners will 20 back to work on Monday morning. Some threaten not to return unless the claims of the strikers are recognized, and they all say that they will quit on the appearance of a strange hand in place of any of the strikers.

Supt. Walmsley returned this morning from Fall River, Mass., where he was said to have gone in search of mill girls who have no weakness for such American institutions as bustles, and who leave the study of the art of dressing neatly to their more wealthy sisters. He will give no information, and his opinion of the newspapers in America is no ters. He will give no information, and his opinion of the newspapers in America is no improvement on the Duke of Marlborough's. This afternoon the strikers and the idle spinners will call for their wages. Harry Miner is going to give the strikers a benefit at his Newark theatre, and it is expected to be a big success. Mr. Clark has offered to take a box

KNIGHTS TO HELP THE STRIKERS.

More Women Clgar-Makers Go Out To-Day -Money for the Strikers.

The strike of the cigar-makers continues, with a prospect of more hands going out tomorrow. At S. Ottenberg & Bros.'s factory several of the women who were at work yes terday quit this forenoon and joined the strikers at Rose Hill Hall, where the Strike Committee of the International Union was busy issuing cards to 300 men and women.

These cards entitle the holders to a weekly benefit of $6 each while they are out.

The strikers were confident of success, and said the firm could not stand much longer a loss of trade.

At the factory it was claimed that there were more than one hundred hands, mostly women, at work and a few Cubans. Policemen guard the entrance and the strikers' pickets keep at respectful distances from them. They are not permitted to approach the building.

Sutro & Newmark's 450 hands are still out, and so also are the fifty reasy of kindell, and so also are the fifty men of Kimball &

And so also are the man senigman, of National Crounse.

Master Workman Senigman, of National Trade District Assembly No. 225, of the cigar industry, said the Knights of Labor would do all in their power to aid the movement against a reduction of wages, and they would adopt a plan to make it successful.

News About the Workers.

The Tobacco Trades Section will aid the boiler felters in their strike for higher wages. The Murray Hill Hotel employees will give a ball at the Lexington Avenue Opera-House on Jan. 26. Of the $6,000 painters in eight organizations 2,000 are out of work. The cold weather has militated against out door jobs.

tated against out door jobs.

The different trades represented in the Tobacco Trades Section of the Central Labor Union, with a few exceptions, report work rather duil.

Business men and Congressmen urge upon Mr. Corbin to listen to reason and arbitrate with the strikers, but the railroad magnate still remains obdurate.

The Trainmen's Relief Association of the Manhattan Elevated Railway will give its annual ball in Webster Hall on Feb. 9. The proceeds will be gevoted to the "death fund."

"The largest carpet ever woven," said John Morrison, leader of the carpet-weavers in this city, "was lately completed by La Savonerie in France, and is for the gallery of the Louvre. It is in sev-enty-two pieces and comprises 1,300 feet."

enty-two pieces and comprises 1,300 feet."
The United Labor Party is to have a grand reunion on Feb. 14, in Webster Hall, when Miss Munier and her Concordia Corus and Henry George and all the other shining lights of the organization will be present. The affair will be managed by the Fourth Assembly District wing of the party, of which Bernard J. Hawkes is the Chairman. The Eccentric Engineers' Association (Knights of Labor) wants to know why non-union engineers are employed in Higgins Hroteers' carpet works, and a committee of the Central Labor Union will try to find out and report next Sunday, unless the matter is sooner settled by the sections concerned in it.

The Federation of Trades Convention at Albany has decided to organize a New York State branch, and will hereafter have a representative at Albany to look out for labor interests during the Legislative sessions. The convention refuses to have anything to do with the State Workingmen's Assembly.

sembly.

A bit of a row has arisen between President Finkelstone, of the Barbera' Union, and Secretary Haybyrne. Mr. Haybyrne went as a delegate to Abany with his oredentials unsigned by the President of the Union, and Mr. Finkelstone protested at what he considered a usurpation of authority. Wait until Haybyrne gets home," said a Central Labor-Union delegate to an Evening World reporter. "and you will see some fun."

A Quiet Meeting for Once.

The Subway Commissioners did not have their usual matinee at to-day's meeting at the Mayor's office. Mayor Hewitt and young Commissioner omce. Mayor itewitt and young Commissioner Gibbens disappointed the reporters, who were prepared for an interchange of compliments between his Honor and the youthful Commissioner. The meeting lasted ten minutes and the business transacted was the adoption of a resolution requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to remove the poles and wires from Sixth avenue, between Twenty-second and Sixty-second streets.

Director Varnum Also Resigns. There is an additional vacancy in the Board of Directors of the American Loan and Trust Company, caused by the resignation of James M. Varpany, caused by the resignation of sames M. Var-num, who was a director in that institution, con-cerning the affairs of which so much has been written of late.

Mr. Varnum when seen this morning admitted he was no longer a director, but said that he had re-signed at the same time Mr. Potts had severed his connection with the company and for the same reason.

Alleged Fifth Avenue Stage Robbers. William Hamilton, of 413 West Fifty-fourth street; George Lawrence, of Newburyport, Mass., and George Adams, of 1341 Sansom street, Philadelphia, were charged at the Jefferson Market Court to-day with robbing the money boxes in the Fifth avenue when arrested last night a jimmy was found on the floor of the stage they were in. Hamilton de-manded an examination and the other two men were committed for trial.

Policeman James Cowan, who was assaulted by Henrietta Yucker when he tried to enter her husband's saloon, at 100 Forsyth street, and arrest her for violating the Excise law, appeared at Essex Market this morning to presente the woman for violation of the Excise law and for assault. The testimony snowed that Cowan had entered the woman's budroom in civilian's clothes and tried to drag her out. Justice O'Reilly dismissed both complaints.

CAUGHT BY A DECOY.

Three Clever Green-Goods Men Sent to the Tombs.

the enemy of bangs, bustles, combs and Their Capture Planned by New Jersey Postmaster.

> Two of the Accused Men the Sons of Very Respectable Parents-The Other an Uptown Expressman, Who Kept Private Letter Boxes, Where He Received the Answers to the Green Goods Circulars.

Standing before Justice Kilbreth, at the Tombs Police Court this morning, were Anthony Comstock, his assistant, George E. Oram, and three others.

The three others were the prisoners of the first named, and were arraigned for advertising and offering for sale counterfeit money. These green-goods men appear upon the record of the court as Arthur Decker, aged nineteen years, a clerk, living at 49 Seventh avenue; John Doe, same age, stationer, at 416 Sixth avenue, and William Morris, aged thirty-nine years, agent, living at 327 West Thirty-ninth street.

Decker's name is the only one which was Decker's name is the only one which was properly conferred. John Doe is Albert Schwartz, son of Jacob Schwartz, Librarian of the Apprentices' Library at 18 East Sixteenth street and a member of the firm of J. B. Schwartz & Sons, dealers in photographers' materials at 416 Sixth avenue. Morris is none other than William Munnie, who advertises his business at 827 Sixth avenue as the "oldest and most reliable uptown express." Decker and Schwartz are charged with the sending of circulars advertising counterfeit.

Decker and Schwartz are charged with the sending of circulars advertising counterfeit money, and Munnie with receiving the answers of the "suckers" who have been caught by the allurement of the advertisement, knowing the character of the business that Decker and Schwartz were engaged in. Decker's mother is a respectable widow who keeps a boarding-house at 49 Seventh avenue, but the most of his unlawful correspondence was carried on at the house of young Schwartz's mother, Barbara Schwartz, 314 West Nineteenth street, where he rented a front parlor for the purpose.

The men were remanded to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury in default of $5,000 bail each.

Munnie protested that he did a legitimate business and kept private letter-boxes, to business and kept private letter-boxes, to which the letters of the others were ad-dressed, and that he had no knowledge of their contents.

Mr. Oram says, in answer to this claim, that although he advertises private letter-boxes, he has not even a pigeon-hole in the place. The letters which were sent to Decker their contents. boxes, he has not even a pageon-norm that place. The letters which were sent to Decker under his fifteen or twenty aliases were addressed to as many boxes which did not exist, and were wrapped up in a newspaper and handed to Decker by Munnie.

This was done even after Munnie received a letter prepared by Mr. Comstock and sent from Millersburg, Ind., warning him of the character of Decker's swindling sawdust scheme.

scheme.

Mr. Oram also says that Munnie runs a policy shop in the rear of his express office.

The capture of the three men was brought about by Postmaster James Brick, of Clifton, N. J., who was attempted to be bribed to re-

N. J., who was attempted to be bribed to receive letters addressed to the swindlers and forwarded to New York. He called the attention of the Post-Office authorities to the case and it was put into the hands of Mr. Comstock to work up.

Postmaster Brick, under instructions, appeared to accede to the wishes of the greengoods men, accepted money from them by letter and also from the hands of Decker, whom he succeeded in getting to call on him. So completely did the men fall into the trap that a perfect web of criminating evidence was woven about them, and they were captured yesterday and locked up at Police captured yesterday and locked up at Police Headquarters by Detectives Collins and Mc-Dermott, of Inspector Steers's staff. Mr. Comstock intimates that there are still others inplicated than the men ar-

Mr. Comstock intimates that there are still others inplicated than the men arrested, but the detectives are of the opinion that the leader, at least, is caught in the person of Munnie, in whose possession was found a full outilt of green-goods stock, including circulars, printed letters of instruction, and a list of post-offices and addresses in various towns.

The gang had been working the Western States very successfully.

States very successfully.

JOHN GORDON'S FATAL LEAP. Jumping to Instant Death from a Fourth Story Window,

John Gordon, a Scotchman, forty-eight years old, jumped from the fourth-story win dow of 230 West Thirty-ninth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, at 10 o'clock this morning.

In his fall he struck first the iron gate opposite the basement passage, breaking it off, and then struck the flags in the basement yard on his head, crushing his skull. He was instantly killed.

A call was sent in to Roosevelt Hospital. but on the arrival of the ambulance Gordon was dead. The body was carried to the Twentieth Police Precinct Station-House.

was dead. The body was carried to the Twentieth Police Precinet Station-House. At 230 West Thirty-ninth street it was learned that he had, with his wife and daughter, age fourteen years, occupied the fourth floor flat for about five months. His wife was prostrated by the shock. Gordon took the fatal leap while suffering from the effects of liquor. He had been drinking for a week. He came home last evening under the influence of liquor, and this morning, under an insane impulse, made a dart for the window. His wife seized him and struggled with him, trying to restrain him from carrying out his suicidal intent. He broke away from her and threw himself to the ground.

Mr. Gordon had been in the insurance and commission business. He was reputed to have been in good circumstances once, but was at present out of business and friends. He had friends in Boston.

Five Years Imprisonment for Sanger. George Sanger in the Court of General Sessions pleaded guilty of the theft of a $250 watch and other jewelry belonging to Just W. Emerson, whose room in the New York Hotel was entered and routed on New Year's Day. Recorder Smyth con-demned Sanger to imprisonment in Sing Sing for five years, and in addition imposed a fine of $250.

Turf Items.

The Brooklyn Jockey Chib Intend to build new stables to accommodate seventy-five bead of horses during the coming spring.

It is asserted in Baltimore that Col. F. W. Hall will shortly introduce a bill in the Maryland Legislature similar it character to the lives bill as passed by the New York Legislature hast year. The three-year-old chestnut gelding Rienal, by Hindoo, dam Mary Lanphier, the property of C. Cornenisen, of this city, died at the Brookiya Jockey Club's track this morning of colle.

"AN ANGEL WITHOUT WINGS."

Reward in the Sweet By and by JUDGE RAPALLO'S SUCCESSOR.

t the Sidewalk Sprinkler Is Sure of hn Clinton Gray Nominated to the Vacant Judgeship of the Court of Appeals.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) ALBANY, Jan. 20.-Gov. Hill to-day sent t the Senate the name of John Clinton Gray to succeed Judge Rapallo, of the Court of Ap-

Mr. Cantor immediately moved that the nomination be confirmed, but Senator Sloan objected and it was sent to the Finance Com-

KATE SHEAN'S DEATH,

The Woman Crushed Between an Elevated Car and a Station Platform.

An inquest in the case of Kate Shean, who was crushed to death on the elevated railroad at Ninety-third street and Ninth avenue was began to-day. John Cleary, a guard on the train, testified:

While the train was in motion the deceased came to the gates of the taird car. I told her to stand back, but she took hold of the third car gate and went along with the car two or three steps. Her foot caught between the cars and the platform and she fell through that space. The wheels did not pass over her. I did not unfasten her hands from the gate and threw her back.

Lawver Shaw, of the firm of Davies & Rapallo, questioned the witness carefully about the space between the car and platform. He said the distance between the platform of the car and the station platform was only three inches, but between the car and the platform six or seven inches.

It is expected that the womon's relatives will sue for damages.

Thomas J. Hertiky testified in much the same way. He had been on the platform of the third car.

Lynes Fletcher, the engineer, said he stopped the train within about half a car's length.

TRIED TO STAMPEDE THE SCHOOL.

Street Arabs Arrested for Shoutin "Fire! Fire!" at the Door. Principal Josiah H. Zabriskie, of Grammar School No. 16, in Thirteenth street, near

Seventh avenue, was in Jefferson Market Court this morning to charge four little street arabs with nearly creating a panic in About 3.30 p. M. yesterday they went to the school door and shouted, "Fire! fire!"

causing an uproar.

The janitor, J. A. Edgerla, was out in an instant and closed the school gates, making They described the school gates, making the arabs prisoners.

They described themselves as George Ahern, aged fourteen, and Daniel Walsh, fourteen, of 68 Gansvoort street, and John Sullivan, alias "Tyg Wilson," aged fifteen, and Frank Hardy, also fifteen, of 80 Horatio street.

Justice White instructed Agent Steen to take the boys to the society's rooms and find out about their parents.

Anti-Saloon Republicans The Executive Committee of the State Anti-Saloon Republican League completed its organization yesterday by electing ex-Judge Davis Chair tion yesterday by electing ex-Judge Davis Chairman; J. L. Mitchell, of this city, Secretary, and Daniel E. Pope, of Orange County, Organizing Secretary.

The meeting was held in Albert Griffin's office, St Nassau street. For the purpose of formulating a uniform plan of organization, a committee was appointed, consisting of J. L. Mitchell, Frank Moss and John R. Hawes.

A committee of three, composed of Col. E. P. Hill, Daniel E. Pope and Frank Moss, was appointed to confer with the National Committee, relative to the proposed national conference to be held in New York at an early date.

Federationists at Albany Adjourn.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
ALBANY, Jan. 20. - The Stite branch of the American Federation of Trades Unions adjourned American Federation of Trades Unions adjourned side due this afternoon. A resolution for independent political action among labor organizations was tabled after an animated discussion in which President Fred Heller, of the State branch, and Ludwig Jobianionski, of New York, took the affirmative, and J. C. Denell, of Buffalo, the negative. Deneil held that the organization might as well disband as to endeavor to dabble in politica. A. S. Richards, J. J. Roach and W. F. Steer, of Albany, were chosen Legislative Committee.

after an absence of twenty years in Europe reafter an assence of twenty years in Europe re-turned to his home in Newport six months ago and died there last Tuesday, took place from Trinity Church this moraling. The Rev. Joseph W. Hill conducted the services. Among those present were the widow, his son, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. George Garr, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Montgomery, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson H. Henry and Louis L. Lori-lard. The interment was in the McEvers's family wault.

Came Home to Die After Twenty Years.

The funeral of Edward Louis Livingston, wh

Keeping Up the Cold Blunt.

-Weather indications for twenty-four hours beginning at & P. M. : For Connecticut and Eastern Acie York, colder, fair weather, preceded light more; fresh to brisk, high on the coast, westerty winds.

Caw's "Dashaway" Pen.
A double-feed fountain pen that never fails. Caw's lnk and Pen Co., 189 Broadway, opposite John st.

LAST EDITION. O'BRIEN RELEASED. The Irish Editor Given His Free-

PRICE ONE CENT.

Cheered as He Marched Out of dom To-Day.

Expected to Proceed to Dublin Soon-There was No Disorder, but the Enthus nam Aroused by His Appearance was Very Great-He Has Spent Two Months and a Half in Prison, but Looks Fairly Well.

Copyright, 1888, by: The Press Publishing Company (New

Mr. William O'Brien, M. P., when he marched out of Tullamore Jail to-day. There was no disorder, but the enthusiasm provoked by the appearance of the eminent

Mr. O'Brien is expected to reach this city dicated that he is in fairly good nealth. ABBEY'S PRETENDED AGENT.

certs in 1886, was taken before United States Commissioner Lyman to-day. De Lancey Nicoll, who represents the Con-drawal of the first complaint and the substitution of the new one.

The prisoner was discharged and rearrested The prisoner was discharged and rearrested on a new warrant.

Peter Mitchell, counsel for Benson, objected to the new complaint on the ground that it was incomplete and did not show proof that forgery had been committed by the prisoner. Commissioner Lyman ordered the examination to go on.

All the witnesses who were to be examined were sent out of the room except the one on the stand.

Consul Convert Navarra had because it in the were sent out of the room except the one on the stand.

Consul-General Navarro had brought with him a number of witnesses from Mexico, who had bought tickets from Benson. Among them were Sehor Don Thomas Moran, stepson of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Col. Juan Quintas, of the Mexican Army.

The first witness examined was Mr. William Thomas Pritchard, a merchant doing business in the city of Mexico at 22 Priera Santa Maria. He recognized Benson as the man who was engaged in selling ticket at the Teatro Nacional, when he went to buy a ticket for the Patti-concert. He did not buy his ticket at the box office on account of the large crowd, but from a speculator. Benson at that time was talking with a man named Zarate, who was at one time a clerk in Mr. Pritchard's employ.

Mr. Mitchell did not cross-examine Mr.

Mr. Mitchell did not cross-examine Mr.
Pritchard.
Mr. Henry E. Abbey was next called. He faid thot he was the manager of Patti in 1886, and had arranged for a tour through Mexico in December, 1886. He hired the theatre in the City of Mexico through a manager named Orrin, and paid a deposit of $500
He first met Benson on the steamer Um bria, which brought him and Patti over from Europe. Benson was introduced to him on bria, which brought him and Patti over from Europe. Benson was introduced to him on the tug which brought the party up the hartor. He said he was the correspondent of the Faris Figuro, Gil Bias and London Referee.

Benson called on Mr. Abbey the day after the arrival of the steamer and interviewed him about the duties of an advance agent and the Pattic tour.
Mr. Abbey at that time gave Benson the printed lists of dates and the route.

THE CLUBBERS ON TRIAL,

Irving, the policemen who clubbed each other in Bleecker street recently, was begun before Police Commissioner Porter to-day. The charged were made by Inspector Conlin. The main point brought out was that Irv-

Ex-Surrogate Rollins in His Old Court. Ex-Surrogate Daniel G. Rollins applied to Surro-gate Ranson: to-day on behalf of the widow of Judge Bell and obtained ancillary letters testa-mentary for her or her husban's estate.

baturday) are as follows: First Race. Purse $150, for beaten llowances; three-quarters of a mile. l'antivy..... tersburg..... for all agos; five furlougs, 110 John Finn.... 119 Trade Dollar 107 Anarchy..... 107 Battledore ...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20, Fred Davis.

Tullamore Jail.

Fork World),
[SPECIAL CARLE DESPATCH TO THE WOOLD.]

DUBLIN, Jan. 20.—Cheer after cheer greeted editor reached a high pitch.

Mr. O'Brien has been in prison about twelve weeks, but his appearance to-day in-

Witnesses from Mexico Telling How Bense Sold Bogns Patti Tickets. Henry Benson, alias George Bonton, alias August Mayer, who is alleged to be the swindler who sold bogus tickets to the citizens of the city of Mexico for the Patti consul-General of Mexico, Juan de Navarro, asked leave to withdraw the old complaint and to substitute a new one which charges Benson with forging the name of Henry E. Abbey to a letter of introduction, and the name of Marcus Meyer to tickets for the Patti concerts, Commissioner Lyman permitted the withing accuses Maguire of going across the street to the Fifteenth Precinct and there as-sulted him. Irving's statement was that when Maguire had assaulted him and he had defended himself, two men and two officers came to Maguire's assistance.

Patrolmen Irving and Magnire Up Before Commissioner Porter. The trial of Joseph P. Maguire and John

Guttenburg To-Morrow. The entries for the Guttenburg races to-morrow